WCAC Raffle

At our UKC Agility Trial in November of 1998, Windy City held its first Raffle. All proceeds from that raffle were used to help with the medical expenses for two of our members' seriously ill agility dogs.

At the December Board meeting that year, the WCAC Officers and Directors voted to continue holding raffles at all future WCAC trials. The proceeds from these raffles are held as a special fund, used to assist members who may need help with medical bills incurred while treating their agility dogs' illnesses.

As part of our club's support of members, both human and canine, Windy City offers this assistance in recognition and appreciation of the sacrifices members make for their beloved dogs. All of us who have pet animals that we love are aware of the difficult choices facing us when those pets require extraordinary medical care.

Director Sonja Lund chairs the Raffle Committee. All raffle prizes are the generous donations of friends and members of Windy City. None of the proceeds are used for administrative costs.
